Where the STA Formed

- The Security Trainers Association was formed in 2004
- It was headed up by the President (past-away) Gordon Dick
- It had a good industry relationship until Gordon past away, so did the Association
- In 2008 LRD formally implemented some changes to strengthen the training industry this is where the STA was re-launched – 19th November 2008
- Tim Sell and myself formed a meeting with the training industry and we met on Level 3 - 51 Queen St Melbourne.
- Here is where it all started.....

*FRANCHISE RTO'S PLEASE NOTE***

- The STA will not sell its resources to RTO's to distribute to franchised operators within their business. Any franchisee of the franchisor will be responsible to purchase its own resources for use. The STA has zero tolerance on its resources being used without a formal licence agreement with the person responsible for delivering the training in the franchise arrangement, any franchisee using the STA resources must have a STA licence agreement.

From The President

I wish you a great day and all the success for the future. Strengthen your alliances and commit to the longevity of a Professional Security Industry. Go beyond your wildest dreams and take the road to success!!

Please Welcome

Snr Sergeant Paul Connor from LRD
